DANIELSON

As soon as an understanding is arrived at between borough officials and the selectmen of the town, who have supervision over the streets, signs will be erected prohibiting parking of vehicles in the streets between the Danielson Trust company building and the Exchange block. This action is contemplated with traffic at many times during the day and there has been a general demand that parking there be not allowed.

Chief A. P. Woodward of the fire department said that he has heard nothing for weeks relative to when the big motor fire truck that has been ordered for the local department will be delivered. The appropriation to meet the cost of the truck was made at the annual town meeting last fall and the order for the apparatus placed soon thereafter. Delivery was expected early this fall, but the taking by the government of trucks on orders ahead of Danielson's has delayed delivery, and it may, and probably will be, after the first of the new year before the big machine is received here.

Two cases in which William B. Wheatley of Providence, formerly of Danielson, is listed as defendant are listed to be assigned for trial at the September term of the superior court for this county, to be held at Putnam.

The plaintiffs are persons who allege that they were passengers in Mr. Wheatley's car when it was wrecked at the junction of Elmwood and Reservoir avenues, in Providence, in the fall of last year. Mr. Wheatley is protected up to $10,000 by a liability policy which he was carrying at the time the accident occurred.

The absence from Killingly of many young electors who are in the service of their country creates in this town at this time a condition that is proving a puzzle to many who are attempting to forecast what the effect is not to be at the polls in town in the coming town and state elections. And while the situation is puzzling to the voters now it will be more so because town election day, for many more young voters will have left for camp by that time.

Danielson Deities. Alfred Vives, a selectman, is leaving today for Camp Upton, with a contingent from this district.

Rev. Roy B. Chamberlain, who has been in France as a Y. M. C. A. worker, is to speak in the interest of the Red Cross at the town hall on Tuesday evening next. Rev. Chamberlain was to have given his address this evening.

The public schools of the town of Killingly will reopen for the fall term on Tuesday morning of next week.

Henry C. Vincent of Worcester, was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Thursday.

Thursday afternoon was the last of the half-holidays for the store forces of Danielson for this summer.

Mrs. N. A. Sawyer of Waterbury has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dabbs of North Main street.

Some few registrants here were subject to the order permit in declining to obey the work or fight program. It is promised that such men will be summarily dealt with and may be ordered to camp at any time.

A force of carpenters is engaged in remodeling the Rios homestead, which has been purchased by F. E. Rios, at the corner of Broad and Academy streets, and will be occupied by him this fall as a modern residence.

The instruction board members will be expected to address the men on the day they are leaving for camp, speaking on subjects that will cover the reasons why America is in the great war, why America must win the war, personal welfare of each registrant, subject pertaining to his moral conduct, etc. It is expected that the personnel of this new board will be announced in the very near future.

Thursday brought the last of the weekly summer half-holidays for store forces of this city. The weather man did not see fit, however, to show any consideration on this account, and turned in the most dreary and drizzly day that the business men and clerks have known during the season on their half day off. Next Monday is Labor day, though, so there is another full holiday just ahead as compensation.

Special Deputy Howard Elliott of the bureau of domestic animals for Connecticut has been making visits to towns in this part of Windham county to keep tabs on the manner in which the dog laws are being observed. It must be remembered by owners of dogs, it is pointed out that the restrictive measures ordered last fall, with some modification, are still in force and that they must be obeyed or punishment will follow.

With the district senatorial convention that will decide the matter only a short time ahead, politicians are giving attention to the matter of selecting a republican candidate for senator from this district. Party leaders here feel confident that the honor of furnishing a candidate will come to Putnam and that Senator Arthur Macdonald, who has strong support in Killingly and other towns of the district, will be renominated to succeed himself.

Four men for limited service are leaving here today for Camp Upton, at Yaphank, N. Y. The men are Alfred Vives, Danielson; George Prentice, Hail New Britain; Rakura Kamezoy, Mochiquerville; Chester Alden Ryan, Putnam.

On Sept. 6 the following group of limited service men will leave this city for the same destination: Asene Blain, Grosvenordale; William Adams, Webster; Byron Russell Barber, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Arsene Lavalle, Danielson; John A. Swanson, Grosvenordale; John Gahan, Putnam; Albert R. Anderson, Linwood, Mass.; John Henry Preston, Danielson; Joseph N. Perry, Killingly; Alexius P. Ryan, Putnam; Delphis Forcier, Webster; F. C. Moore, Putnam; Alphonse Gaudreau, Danielson.

What duties these men will be assigned to is not known here.

Putnam Puffins.
After an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Narcisse Dufault, whose body was found in the river here Monday morning, Judge A. G. Bill, coroner for Windham county, has decided that the case was one of suicide.

Arnold R. Stone, who some time ago purchased the well known Paine farm in the town of Thompson, is leaving this city today to purchase a large herd of cattle.

On account of the additional space that will be required for records and workers, permission has been granted the local board for this district to acquire another office, one adjoining the present quarters, in the offices of Torrey and Geisler, in the Bradley building on Elm street.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Devine was held Thursday morning with services at St. Mary's church. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

It was stated here on Thursday that the hard coal supply needed to meet the needs of householders of this city for the cold weather season fast approaching is not nearly adequate.

The public schools of Putnam are to reopen for the fall term next Tuesday.

Rev. J. S. Purdy of Athol, Mass., is to preach at the Advent church here on Sunday.

Rev. George C. S. Mackay, pastor of the Baptist church, returned from a visit to St. John's N. B.

mal school at Greenville, N. C.

Cars bearing printed invitations to soldiers and sailors who are going the way of the cars to get in and ride are getting common in Putnam and vicinity.

Rev. Frederick Leeds, pastor of St. Philip's church, who has been spending a few days in Vermont, is expected to return here the first of the month.

Next Monday being Labor day there will be a general suspension of business in this city.

USQUEPAUGH

Sunday, Aug. 25, 1918, was certainly a banner day for this little village. All day services were held at the church. Preaching by Mr. Wilde, at 11 a. m. During the intermission a basket lunch was served, coffee being furnished by the ladies. At 2 p. m. the dedication services were held. The church was filled to overflowing. The speakers were Hon. H. Anthony Dyer of Providence, Mr. Wadman, pastor of Wood River church, and Mr. Clippinger from Virginia.

The Wood River Mission band played at the praise service. Rev. Barber, leader; Mrs. Reynolds, organist. Mrs. Florine Clippinger sang a solo. Mrs. Helen Carpenter of Brooklyn presided at the organ.

There are seven stars on the service flag. The names of the boys represented are: Roy Dawley, Robert J. Donnelly, Chester Donnelly, Peck, John Walmsley, James Walmsley, Jerry Walmsley.

MIDDLESEX AND BOSTON

TROLLEYMEN ON STRIKE
Boston, Aug. 28.—Orders were issued tonight to the union street car men employed on the lines of the Middlesex and Boston in this city.

Company to strike at midnight tonight, stopping all trolley transportation in 22 Massachusetts cities and towns to the west of Boston. Thousands of persons engaged in war work at the Watertown arsenal and in large factories in Waltham and Framingham would be affected. The men's demand for higher pay and the refusal of the company to refer the wage dispute to the national war board caused the decision, union leaders say.

GERMAN STEAMERS REPLACE DUTCH SHIPS TORPEDOED

Amsterdam, Aug. 28.—A Batavia Java news agency dispatch to the Dutch newspaper says that six German steamers have been transferred to the Rotterdam-Lloyd, the Holland-American Line and the Royal Dutch Lloyd to replace six Dutch ships torpedoed off the Solly Islands. All the steamers at present are in Java ports.

13,347 NURSES ENLISTED THROUGH RED CROSS

Washington, Aug. 28.—Total enlistments of nurses through the American Red Cross from the commencement of the war to August 1 has been 13,347, against an estimated requirement of 27,000 before January 1, 1919. The states of Connecticut, New Jersey and New York have led in recruiting.

Constantinople also was attacked Sunday night and the previous Wednesday night by airmen.

BO-RAXO

in the BATH

Keeps the Skin Youthful

If you value a clear, softly-glowing skin, begin today the use of this wonderful new toilet luxury—BO-RAXO Bath and Toilet Powder.

Until you have experienced the delights of its cleansing, delicately-perfumed lather, you cannot appreciate how unsatisfactory are ordinary soaps for retaining the youthful softness and beauty of the skin.

BO-RAXO

BATH & TOILET POWDER

does what no soap can—gets down into the clogged pores, opens them up and lets the skin "breathe". It softens, whitens, and renews. It's the pure Borax in BO-RAXO which makes it different—and better than any soap. Try BO-RAXO in your bath tonight.
